

We believe that
no greater vocation
can be had by a woman or
a man than to be a parent.

Our purpose is to promote the quality of that vocation
and to offer men and women
an organization that supports
the pursuit of their equal rights as parents.

*Kids need Fathers,
Not Visitors.*

We have been helping Fathers and Families caught in the tangles of divorce /
separation since 1986.

We're focused on keeping
both parents involved
in their children's lives.

Fathers Make a Difference

Children need their dads. Our mission is to be sure that children of divorced parents have both parents in their lives. To that end, we are committed to:

Joint custody or shared parenting in divorce or separation cases.

Enforcement of equal parenting time.

Advancing non-adversarial resolutions to domestic matters.

Equality and fairness in child support legislation.

The recognition by judges, legislators, attorneys, mediators, social workers and law guardians that both parents need to be involved in their children's lives.

Advancing the awareness and understanding of the devastation caused to children, parents and extended family by parental alienation.

“When a child loses a father, they also lose a grandfather, grandmother, aunts, uncles, cousins and their entire extended family. A lot of love is lost.” Unknown
